The Fifth Sunday in Lent

March 9, 2008

"I Believe... You Are the Christ"

It is easy to forget what it means to be sons and daughters of the Gospel reading this week is about Lazarus. Fire up! Next to the passages talking about the resurrection of our Lord, this is one to get pumped up about. Try inserting yourself into the passage instead of Mary and Martha (Lazarus' sisters). And instead of their brother, Lazarus, insert someone you loved who died. For me, it would be my Aunt Louise, my grandparents, Gaylord, and my Godparents. What would our thoughts be if Jesus raised our loved one from the grave? They might be: "No way." "Surely this is God!" "Who should I tell first?" "I want the world to meet and know Jesus." I might even want to post it on "My Space". We might even ask Him what we could do to repay Him for what he had done. Our emotional response might be tears of joy, awe, wonder, humility, unworthiness, and fear. And most importantly, how would our behavior change as a result of what happened? Has it changed? Is it changing? The cross is the crux of our faith. Jesus, being God, made restitution for our sins by dying on the cross and rising from the grave, so that we might never die. What does God want from us in return? Jesus answered this question in today's Gospel reading when He said the following to Martha, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me will live, even though he dies; and whoever lives and believes in Me will never die. Do you believe this?" "Yes Lord", she told Him, "I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who was to come into the world."

Dear Lord, may our response to You be the same as Martha's. Thank you that all You require from us is belief. During this Lenten season, remind us that there are many who do not know You. May our belief translate into the work of sharing the Gospel with others through our words and actions.

Confirmation question: When have you felt like Mary & Martha in this story?

FCLC has trained Stephen Ministers— Christian caregivers who encourage, care, and pray. Ask for a Stephen Minister by calling the church office, 303-776-8771, or call Julie Baas, 303-772-4995.

If you are dealing with a health crisis or special need, please let us know if you'd like prayers and anointing with oil with a small group of us after worship — this can be arranged on short notice!! Just tell Pastor Dan or Pastor Bruce.
